LTS NEWS

Lutheran Theological Seminary in Tshwane [Pretoria, South Africa]

OFF TO A GOOD START

(UP—Tukkies)

enter this program after successfully passing and the bridging course of 2 years.

Grammar (Rev. N.Mntambo), Academic skills (Bishop Weber). D. Tswaedi DD and Bishop Weber).

As usual for the past decade the LTS in Deaconess D.Rockrohr has also started the Tshwane started its proceedings on the first fulltime deaconess program with 8 new stu-Tuesday in February - just as the new aca- dents from Liberia, Botswana and South Africa demic year began at the University of Pretoria - with one more hopefully coming in from Uganda.

Together with the theological faculty at UP we In the first quarter of the BTh - previously our are now offering the Bachelor of Theology de- main course - our students are doing Church gree at our Seminary. Hopefully most of the History I: Early Church and Systematic Orienmore than 20 new students at LTS will finally tation (Rev. Dr. C.Rockrohr), Youth ministry Hebrew Lectio continua (Rev. N.Mntambo); Biblical Introduction and Greek During this introduction the newcomers are Lectio continua (Rev. D.Tswaedi DD) and filearning Greek (Mr. S.Oxlon) and Hebrew nally Symbolics IV: Formula of Concord

(Mrs. A. Dorfling) besides basic Introductions May the triune God bless the Lutheran Church into biblical and confessional theology (Rev. and it's Seminary in its teaching, preaching learning, worshipping and praying.

25,000 US$ to match

lenging bit of this information is that this grant abilities. pastors and deaconesses.

The 25k US$ grant is a very generous gift and The past decade - since the translocation from can help to raise it.

The good news is that we have the commit-port this "its" Seminary faithfully and substanment of a $25, 000 US dollar grant to address tially although it has had more than its fair and the staffing costs at the LTS in 2012. The chal- growing share of challenges in increasing li-is only due, when and if we can raise the The fact that they have now freed up Prof. Dr. matching funds. For every 1US$ we raise, we habil. Werner Klän to take up the Lutheran are to receive a matching dollar. So please do Chair of Theology at the University of Pretoria support the Seminary and help us to raise this and have even managed to raise the funds for outstanding amount - for the sake of the Lu- a 6 year long posting. That goes a long way to theran Church in Southern Africa and its future prove their ongoing enthusiasm for theological education in Africa.

we are very grateful for it, because it will help Enhlanhleni to Pretoria - has also been a good us significantly to address the financial chal- time for the Seminary. Student numbers have lenges faced by the Lutheran Theological increased, teachers have been constantly Seminary in Tshwane, but it will hopefully also available and the facility has grown nicely. All raise the awareness in the Lutheran Church this growth was mainly due to the significant that good Seminaries need support and we increase in support from the Missouri Synod (LCMS) and its many subsidiaries notably the It is only by God's grace that our Seminary districts in Rocky Mountains (Randy Golter) has survived many decades on a shoestring, and in South Illinois (Herb Mueller/Tim There have been good times, especially in the Scharr, but also World Relief and Human 70's and 80's, when the Lutheran Church in Care (Matthew Harrison), World Mission, the Southern Africa was able to support the Semi- Lutheran Heritage Foundation and last but not nary substantially together with its german sis- least both Seminaries in St. Louis and ter church the Free Evangelical Lutheran Ft. Wayne. To be fair, we have to admit that Synod in South Africa, but even back then all Ft. Wayne really has carried the main load of staff members - at some times up to 5 - were sending teachers here regularly - up to 4 per funded by the LKM (Bleckmar). Bleckmar - as annum. So we are looking forward to seeing the Church mission of the SELK - has over Prof. John Pless (CTS Ft.Wayne) and Prof. the years, decades in fact, continued to sup- Dr. Reed Lessing (CS St.Louis) here soon.

Post-graduates do well

Several of our post-graduate students at the Missions University of Pretoria have completed their whereas Rev. David Tswaedi DD is now endegree and have moved on. Vicar Bheki rolled in the PhD program at CS St. Louis and Ngobese (Mpumalanga), Eric (Liberia) and Abia Anibati (Sudan) have suc- Christmas. Rev. Eliot Sithole is continuing with cessfully completed the Honours Degree in the writing and finalization of his dissertation in Systematics, Missions and New Testament Mission theology and Old Testament under respectively. The last two of these Gebotoe supervision of CTS Ft.Wayne, where Rev. Naand Abia have moved on to the Masters pro- than Mntambo would also gladly enrol to program, whereas Ngobese is called to serve in ceed with the PhD in practical theology. KwaNgema, Mpumalanga in a new mission Our prayers and best wishes accompany station being built up.

Shuping are busy with the Masters program in an African context.

Systematics and Gebotoe has had the first session on campus after these theologians as they grapple with the on-The pastors John Nkambule and Orapeleng going task of working in Lutheran theology in Student representatives 2012: Thulani Hadebe (Secretary); Abia Anibati (Chair) and Matthews Tokpah (Treasurer)

Different Weather, Customs and Languages but the Same Gospel of Joy

then we were off on the airplane from Detroit and town. on 20 January and arrived in South Africa on The funeral service and burial was mostly in sphere.

vice.

nary. The next Saturday, 28 January, Deborah women's choir of at least 50 voices. and I were invited to attend a funeral service Though sung in Tswana, I fully recognized the Southern Africa who had died leaving behind Joy to the World. his wife and three small children. We left Pre-

After six months of preparing and raising sup-toria at 4h30 for the service which started at port for our move to serve in South Africa, 7h30. The service, along with the burial site Ted, Deborah and I felt very ready to move. liturgy, lasted until noon. Many area pastors Deborah's parents helped finish packing and and women's groups came for the funeral as organizing our house which we will lease and well as the people of the local congregation

21 January. The day we left Detroit was the Tswana, but also in some Zulu and English. coldest day of the mild winter in Detroit, 5° F (- There was grief expressed, yet also thankful-15° C). We met 81° F (27° C) in Pretoria. We ness for the pastor's faithfulness and the hope traveled from the winter of the northern hemi- of life everlasting with the Lord Jesus. The losphere to the summer in the southern hemi- cal tradition is to take the coffin directly to the burial site right after the service similar as in We attended church the next day at St Paul's the United States. Since it was a small town all Lutheran Church in Arcadia only one block walked behind the hearse for several blocks to away from Lutheran Theological Seminary, the graveyard. What was different however We had made friends in the congregation was that the burial rites include lowering the when we visited Pretoria for a week in March coffin and covering it with the pile of earth right 2011 and we wanted people to know we had then and there. Attending pastors and men of arrived. St. Paul is a German speaking con- the community shoveled in the dirt and rocks gregation, so we understood the liturgy fairly while a choir of women from the Women's well but the sermon escaped us. Friends from Prayer League and the Women in Action the congregation said hello to us after the ser- groups led all congregants in singing Christian songs. I was privileged to stand right behind The following days we caught up on sleep Bishop Weber watching the men burying the from jet lag and also attended a number of coffin while being literally surrounded and enmeetings for both the church and the semi-veloped with Tswana hymns sung by a for a young pastor of the Lutheran Church in melody of the second last song that was sung:

Rockrohrs have arrived

And so Lutherans in a small South Africa town of the first class of residential deaconess trainthe midst of death.

Eight of the students are women who are part culture and condition. (Dr. C.Rockrohr) sang at a young pastor's burial the very hope ing. Though our instruction is in English, our that we Christians proclaim to all: Joy - for students represent many languages and cul-God has given us His Son to save us, even in tures. At the inductions into our seminary positions in chapel this morning, Deborah and I Lutheran Theological Seminary, the place to again plainly declared along with the whole which Deborah and I are called, has just Church that there is one true God, Father, Son started classes today (7 Feb). We have about and Holy Spirit and we would abide in true 41 students in all (some are still arriving). The faithful teaching. We are thankful to God and students are from South Africa, Liberia, to His Church for sending us to be with fellow Uganda, Ethiopia, Nigeria, Zambia, Sudan, Christians at LTS. We see again and again, Botswana, and the Democratic Republic of the Gospel of Jesus Christ reaches into the Congo. Six of the students are doing masters hearts and gives faith, hope and love to all or honors studies at the University of Pretoria. whom He calls regardless of race, language,

Mercy and Grace from Beginning to End

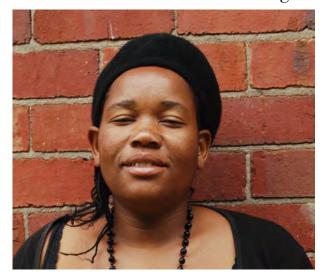

Deaconess students from Liberia from left to right: Ruth T. Nagbe, Helen Flomo and Annie Toe

programme, the work for me is simultaneously blessings already received. exciting and daunting. It is a big task to design 1. ronment. And yet, what joy to see these new Uganda and Zambia.

With the start of the new academic year, this faces and to know that these women are eaweek the residential deaconess training pro- ger to learn and develop their skills so that gramme at LTS was launched. While a new they can extend the mercy work of the church thing, this is not a new idea for LTS. In fact, it both within the congregation and into their has been the dream to add deaconess training communities! Just yesterday, my husband told for some time now. Initially, LTS was able to me that he has not seen me smile so much offer deaconess training only on a short-term nor so often as I have in the last few weeks intensive course basis. This year, we have since we arrived in Pretoria and began preparseven women who have come to study on a ing in earnest for the tasks ahead. Whether full-time basis for two years. By God's grace that is true or not, I can tell you that I look forwe will yet add two more students in the com- ward to each new day with joy and great aning days. We know they are trying to come, ticipation! The Lord has already showered and have places reserved for them, but they great mercy and grace upon this fledgling prohave so far been delayed in travel. As the di- gramme. I invite you to rejoice with me as I rector of the residential deaconess training recount just a few examples of the Lord's Seven women have safely arrived from and then carry out a programme to train these various towns and villages in South Africa, women. It is a big responsibility to see that Botswana, and Liberia, and are already eathey are well cared for, and have a healthy, gerly settling in and taking up their studies. We comfortable and safe living and learning envi- look forward to two more, yet to arrive from

- 2. A beautiful residence has been provided for the women, Dube House. Those who have previously visited the seminary will have known it as guest quarters only. Now it is the deaconess student residence, and has sleeping rooms, bath facilities, a fully-equipped kitchen and laundry, and a large study room.)
- 3. One of our students, arriving by plane, accidentally left her purse (with passport) on the luggage trolley in the parking lot of the airport. It was only after the hour-long journey to the seminary and then while settling into her room that she discovered it was missing. After making several phone calls to the airport, we learned that the purse, with passport and all contents intact, had been spied by an airport worker and taken to lost luggage. That same afternoon we were able to retrieve the purse As we have begun with a recounting of God's astrous turn of events!

Nokuthula Dlamini from the Mpumalanga diocese of the LCSA is the only local South African in the fulltime deaconess course.

and passport! We praise God for His provision grace and mercy on the start of the new resiand protection in what could have been a dis-dential deaconess training programme, we also pray that His mercy and grace will continue throughout, from beginning to end, and

These students from Botswana are members of the Lutheran Church in Southern Africa: Boingotlo Khuto, Gaseteko Otugile, Tshiriletso Lonyatso . They are enrolled in the LTS deaconess program.

Lutheran Theological Seminary in Tshwane

[Pretoria, South Africa]

Arcadia Street 790 P.O.Box 12547; Hatfield 0028

Cell: 082 544 9898 and Tel/Fax: 012 344 2302 LTSinTshwane@gmail.com and www.lts.org.za

Banking Details:

Bank: ABSA Hatfield Branch Code: 335 545

Account name: Lutheran Theological Seminary

Account number: 860 5100 30 BIC: 33 55 45 SWIFT: ABSAZAJJCPT

- 7.2 Classes begin at LTS and UP
- 27.2: Deaconess Grace Rao (LCMS World Relief & Human Care) leads a two-week intensive for Advanced Deaconess studies in collaboration with the UP Trauma unit at S. Biko Hospital
- 27.2 Prof. Pless (CTS Ft.Wayne) teaches "Spiritual life for Pastors" in the Ordination Course)

- 12.3: Prof. Klän (LTH Oberursel) works on Truth & Reconcilation with vicars
- 19-22.3: Pastor's convention at "Good Shepherd Retreat" (North-West)
- 24.3: Easter Break starts
- 14.4: Joint-Supervisory Board UP/LTS meets at the University of Pretoria

Prayer Requests for the LTS

- > More able students to study Lutheran theology and be prepared as pastors and deaconesses in Africa
- > Means to support local teachers so that they can concentrate on teaching, preaching and research.
- > More bursaries for under-graduates & post-graduates to study Lutheran theology full-time at LTS
- > Suitable opportunities for graduates to be called and installed, ordained and taken into service.
- Volunteers to help with a growing work-load: administratively, with house-keeping & tutoring
- > Necessary means to sustain, renovate and expand the facility to meet demand and increase capacity
- Sood theological books for the library, for teachers and students to grow in Luther's teaching.
- > Opportunities for Seminarians and their teachers to tell their story and that of the Seminary in the Churches, dioceses and congregations here and abroad.
- > Possibilities for international exchange to broaden the perspective of Seminarians globally.